Re: Bamonte v. Charatan; No. 7:22-cv-795-KMK; Plaintiffs' Letter Motion for Leave to File Sur Reply

Dear Judge Karas:

On April 14, 2025 Plaintiffs wrote purporting to request permission to file a Sur-Reply. As this letter contained legal arguments and an exhibit¹ this letter was itself a Sur-Reply masquerading as a request for leave. This is improper and the court should not consider it.

However, if the court does consider the request the Defendant requests permission to submit papers in opposition.

Respectfully submitted,

William H. Mack

¹ Or at least the promise of an exhibit. Plaintiffs reference attaching an "Exhibit A" to their motion, but no Exhibit A has been filed.
